

2017 TD Saturday Market “Booth with a Cause” Application

The TD Saturday Market, located on Main Street at McBee Avenue, brings together the finest in-season produce, fresh-cut flowers, gourmet foods, and local handmade crafts every Saturday morning from May through October. Each week the market continues to generate excitement and gain support within the community.

The “Booth with a Cause” at the TD Saturday Market allows local organizations, which focus on farm, farmer, agriculture, health or environmental concerns to increase community awareness and gain exposure. The “Booth with a Cause” provides the opportunity for the market and the community to give back. Interested organizations will be designated one Saturday during the 2017 market season for a fee of $15, which includes a 10’x10’ tent space and one 6’ table. The “Booth with a Cause” organization may recruit volunteers and hand out literature related to their efforts. Please submit your application as soon as possible. Once dates are scheduled, each organization will also be listed on our website. This opportunity will be extended only once per group during each market season.

“Booth with a Cause” organizations are NOT PERMITTED TO SELL ANY ITEMS, but may hand out free items such as literature.
